

Monasterevin Hopkins Society
FREE VIRTUAL ONLINE FESTIVAL

Saturday 24th July 2021
Gerard Manley Hopkins: Lectures and Poetry Reading

Monasterevin Hopkins Society celebrates Gerard Manley Hopkins, his poetry and his unique connection to our community in Monasterevin. We hold an annual festival and invite you to join us and gain an insight into the community and location that he referred to as "one of the props and struts of my existence".

Due to the current Covid 19 pandemic this year's Festival will be a Free Virtual Zoom event.

To receive your invitation to log in to the Zoom event please visit our website, <http://monasterevinhopkinssociety.org/>, where you may subscribe (free) to our mailing list. [Subscription to our mailing list only involves providing your email address, your name and country]

Your invitation will be emailed to you with a link to the event.

Details of the 2021 Festival:

- 10:00am Lecture by Hilary Davies:
 "Hopkins as Traditionalist and Poetic Innovator"
- 11:00am Lecture by Will Daunt:
 "Gerard Manley Hopkins: The Lydiate Connection" (Lydiate is a village 10 miles north of Liverpool associated with Hopkins' poems:
 'Felix Randal & 'Spring & Fall')
- 12 noon Poetry Reading by Hilary Davies, Poet.

Please feel free to invite your friends and colleagues to subscribe
